VARIOUS MATTERS.

Will the groundhog see his shadow today?

The boys are finding the coasting excellent.

The jingle of sleighbells is becoming a familiar sound.

Ice dealers hope that Jack Frost has come to stay a while.

After-inventory sales are attracting many buyers to town.

During February, Venus, Mars and Uranus are all morning stars.

St. James' lodge, No. 23, works the M. M. degree this evening—adv.

The selectmen had many calls for aid as a result of the storm and cold.

There are many tramps, during the intense cold, and many calls for food.

The man with the diminishing coal pile hopes that winter is more than half over.

Plans are being formulated for state German day, which is to be held in New Haven on August 15.

A peddler who would drive a cartload of sand about the streets, during this time of icy walks, ought to find many customers.

Mercury at 5 degrees or 8 degrees, as on Monday morning, makes the farmers repeat the old saw, "Winter never rots in the sky!"

The famous traveling canoe of the state Red Men was turned over to the Nauvauk Red Men by Kehow tribe of Winsted Saturday evening.

month to be conspicuous in the eastern part of the constellation Leo. He rises about 8 p. m. at the beginning of the month and crosses the meridian about 3 a. m. He is always a splendid telescopic object, and his colored belts and rapidly moving moons are sources of unending interest for the observer.

Davis Petition Granted.

The petition of Herbert S. Davis, the former stock broker of this city for a discharge from bankruptcy, has been granted by Ames A. Browning, referee in bankruptcy. The creditors of Mr.
Davis opposed the petition on the ground that he had fraudulently concealed valuable property. Attorney Morgan contended that Mr. Davis had always acted honestly and he was sustained in this contention.

Norwich Guests There.

Miss Anna Davis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Davis of Hartford, Maxwell Bernard Blum of Hartford were married Sunday evening at 8.30. The Rev. Louis Suchanowsky and the Rev. Isaac S. Hurwitz performed the ceremony. The bride wore a messaline dress, beautifully trimmed.
The best man was Morris Apier. The groom was J. Davis, brother of the bride. S. M. Shapiro and M. Fiedler. About 500 guests were present at the supper, including several from Norwich.

Schooner Miner Sold.

The schooner Alton T. Miner, which started having troubles by going ashore at Black Rock a month ago, was sold by United States Marshal Edson S. Bishop Monday. The T. A.
Scott Co. had a salvage claim against the Miner, which was not forthcoming and libeled her. She was sold for $475, and John Porter, a ship carpenter, was the purchaser.

WILL MAKE EXTENSIVE REPAIRS AT BACON BUILDING.

C. W. Comstock Will Put Damaged Portion and Remainder in First Class Condition.

C. W. Comstock is to make extensive repairs to the Bacon Arms building, so-called, of Franklin street, repairing the portion which was damaged by the undermining of the foundation wall last week and throughout the remainder of the building it will be put in first class condition.

The Board of Trade has received no further statement from Mr. Schuler of New Jersey, but as he stated then that the proposition of Norwich would be accepted he is expected to bring his factory to this city. The company owning the building was a discussion called in the store recently vacated by the Knickerbocker Manufacturing company will be located here and doing business by that name.
